

SPECIAL ASSEMBLY BY THE STUDENTS OF II B –A REPORT

“Beauty is not in the face; beauty is a light in the heart.”

Kahlil Gibran

On Tuesday, July 29th, 2025, students of grade II B, hosted a deeply reflective Special Assembly on the theme “True beauty lies in inner qualities, not in outer appearances.” The purpose of the assembly was to emphasize the profound importance of inner beauty in the development of personal character and its far-reaching influence on the moral and social fabric of society. The Special Assembly offered a valuable platform for students and attendees to contemplate the moral and ethical dimensions of inner beauty, emphasizing its relevance in both personal development and interpersonal relationships. A key highlight of the event was a thoughtfully enacted skit by the students, inspired by the fable, The Peacock and the Crane. The performance was both engaging and impactful, leaving a lasting impression on the audience and effectively conveying the core message of the assembly through creative expression.

The skit concluded with a mesmerizing dance performance by the students, marked by perfect synchronization and expressive movements. Enhanced by dynamic lighting and music, the performance captivated the audience and added a magical touch to the event. Following the electrifying dance performance, the students of grade II B conducted an interactive Question and Answer session, engaging both students and parents. The segment witnessed enthusiastic participation, fostering thoughtful dialogue and active involvement from the audience.

The event concluded with a warm vote of thanks, delivered by a student who expressed genuine gratitude to all who contributed to the success of the assembly. In essence, the Special Assembly on the theme “True beauty lies in inner qualities, not in outward appearances” left a lasting impression, effectively highlighting the importance of inner values such as kindness, humility, and integrity—qualities that truly define and uplift individuals and society alike.
